

Expository Experience

Name: _____

Date: _____

Today's Topic:

Black History Month

Directions
Cut apart all of the gray boxes.
Match the main idea with the correct supporting details. Each picture has three details.
Glue the details under the correct picture.
You will need:

Flesch-Kincaid 8.1

Dr. Carter G. Woodson

Mary McLeod Bethune

Association for the Study of African American Life and History

opened a school and eventually, the school became a college known as the "Father of Black History"

was the vice president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Persons (NAACP)

research and share information about Black life, history, and culture placed African American historical contributions front and center

an important educator, civil rights leader, and government official established on September 9, 1915, by Dr. Carter G. Woodson create the annual theme for Black History Month

received a doctorate from Harvard University in 1912